WHY BUY AN APARTMENT IN NUSA DUA?

Nusa Dua is one of Bali's most established resort destinations, known for its beaches, international hotels, golf, dining and tourism infrastructure.

For buyers looking to buy an apartment in Nusa Dua, a professionally managed resort property can provide a different ownership proposition from a standalone villa, particularly for international buyers who do not intend to manage the property themselves.

Ramada Encore by Wyndham Bali Anta combines this model with international hotel branding, extensive resort facilities and professional hospitality management, while remaining close to Pandawa Beach and the wider southern Bali coastline.

The range of apartment configurations also provides buyers with different entry points, from compact accommodation through to larger residences suited to families and groups.

LEASEHOLD APARTMENT FOR SALE IN NUSA

The apartments are offered on a leasehold ownership structure, providing buyers with an opportunity to secure property within an internationally branded resort development in southern Bali.

For buyers searching for a leasehold apartment for sale in Nusa Dua, the lease agreement is an important part of the purchase and should be considered alongside the unit type, purchase price, management arrangements and intended use.

Any provisions relating to a future lease extension should be carefully reviewed, including the extension period, pricing mechanism and conditions contained within the underlying agreement.

The professionally managed resort structure also means buyers should understand any management agreements, owner usage provisions, operating costs and revenue arrangements associated with their chosen apartment.

As with any Bali property purchase, buyers should independently review the lease documentation, land rights, development permits, building approvals and applicable hospitality licensing before proceeding.

For international buyers considering a Nusa Dua apartment for sale, completing thorough legal and commercial due diligence is particularly important when purchasing within a branded hotel or resort development.

BUYING A NUSA DUA APARTMENT FOR INVESTMENT

For buyers considering a Nusa Dua property investment, this development combines international hotel branding, professional management and extensive resort facilities within one hospitality-focused property.

Its location approximately 1.7 kilometres from Pandawa Beach, together with access to Nusa Dua and the wider Bukit Peninsula, places the development close to beaches, resorts, dining, wellness and other tourism attractions.

For buyers assessing an apartment investment in Nusa Dua Bali, potential returns should be evaluated against the actual management agreement, owner usage restrictions, operating expenses, management fees, taxes and revenue-sharing arrangements.
