89 Winland Dr, Deebing Heights

STUNNING ACREAGE RESIDENCE

From the moment you arrive you know there is something special about this abode. It could be the manicured gardens proudly in bloom or simply the peaceful quiet surroundings of this area. It's surprising just how quiet it is here particularly because you're only minutes away from schools, shops and links to the highway.

The residence itself is warm and welcoming just like a family home should be. Walking in you are immediately greeted by sparkling timber floors and high ceilings creating a relaxing feeling of comfort and tranquillity. These days no family home is complete without separate living spaces for the family so of course 89 Winland has this boxed ticked.

You have the option of a casual family room that some of the family will spend most their time or if you need somewhere quiet and relaxing then you can retire to the formal living room which is ideal for sitting back, relaxing and watching a movie.

There's also an additional third living space that opens on the front veranda perfect for another quiet chill out zone. It's not until you step outside that you truly appreciate what this property has to offer. The kids
